ORDER REVOKING PRESENTENCING RELEASE

On December 1, 2005, defendant Preston Randall was brought before the court for a release revocation hearing under the Bail Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. § 3142.

On May 6, 2005, defendant was released upon a secured appearance bond in the amount of $50,000. On September 2, 2005, defendant Randall pled guilty to Count 1 (wire fraud regarding real estate transaction). His sentencing is set for January 6, 2006.

On November 22, 2005, the Pretrial Services Officer filed a written petition for revocation of release. The officer's petition alleges that Randall violated the conditions of his release by engaging in a financial transaction that involved real estate used to secure his release from custody. On November 29, 2005, the Pretrial Services Officer filed a first amended petition wherein he added the allegation that the subject financial transaction involved the commission of a crime. On December 1, 2005, the Pretrial Services Officer filed a second amended petition wherein he alleged defendant and his mother engaged in another financial transaction that was the commission of a crime.

On December 1, 2005, when defendant appeared before the court, with the advise of retained counsel, defendant orally waived his right to a release revocation hearing and submitted to the issuance of a detention order.

Whereupon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the release of defendant Preston Randall is revoked. Defendant Preston Randall is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service pending further order.
